MUSÉE NATIONAL DE LA FORCE AÉRIENNE DU CANADA

YOU'RE INVITED

AD ASTRA

CEREMONY

Saturday 28 September 2024

Ceremony commences at 1400hrs at the National Air Force Museum of Canada

On behalf of the National Air Force Museum of Canada I would like to invite you to the 29th annual Ad Astra Ceremony. This year, over 150 memorial stones will be dedicated in the RCAF Memorial Airpark, honouring the service and preserving the legacy of Canada's air force personnel.

The ceremony will commence at 1400hrs on 28 September. We encourage attendees to arrive early to explore the Museum and tour through select aircraft that will be open for tours. New exhibits in our gallery tell the story of the RCAF, from 1924 to today, and I am happy to announce the opening of Alert: The Station at the Top of the World, which explores RCAF operations at the northernmost continuously inhabited place in the world.

I look forward to welcoming you and your loved ones to this year's dedication ceremony.

Sincerely,

Kevin Windsor
Executive Director
